Important information

The following additional exclusion applies to section 4 Cancelling or cutting short a journey of the Travel insurance policy for the following cancellation reasons:

- 2. Court cases and quarantine
- 5. FCO travel advice
- 9. Natural disaster

There is no cover for any claim arising directly or indirectly or in any way connected to the disease Covid-19 (Corona virus) or any mutation of it or any disease that is declared a pandemic by the World Health Organisation.

This includes any steps taken by any entity including but not limited to transport operator, Government, authority or agency, in response to or as a result of Covid-19 or a pandemic.

This also includes any claim for any person being quarantined or self-isolating in relation to Covid-19 or a pandemic.

The above endorsement forms part of the Travel Insurance policy and must be read alongside the policy terms and conditions as one document.
