E If you claim

How we settle claims

If the buildings are damaged by any of the causes listed in [Section 1], we will choose whether to:

1) manage and pay for repairing the damaged part using our own suppliers
2) pay to repair or rebuild the damaged part using your suppliers, or
3) make a cash payment.

In the event that we take approach 2 or 3, we will not pay more than the amount which it would have cost us to repair or rebuild the damaged part using our own suppliers and therefore the amount you receive may be lower than the cost charged by your suppliers.

If the damage to the buildings isn't repaired or rebuilt, we may pay the difference between the market value of your property immediately before the damage and its value after the damage. We may take off an amount for wear and tear if the buildings were not in a good state of repair at the time of the damage.

How much we will pay

The most we will pay for any claim will be:

• the total sum insured shown on your schedule or the full rebuild cost of your buildings, whichever is less, plus
• any amounts due under the following parts of Section 1B:
  - Alternative accommodation, kennel fees and lost rent
  - Clearance costs
  - Professional fees
  - Government or local authority regulations and requirements.

If the sum insured isn’t enough to cover the cost to rebuild your buildings, we will reduce any payment in line with the premium shortfall.

For example, if your premium was 75% of what it would have been if the sum insured was enough to rebuild your buildings, we will pay no more than 75% of your claim.

Your excess

You will have to pay any excesses shown in your schedule. This includes the specific excesses for:

• subsidence, heave or landslip
• escape of water.

We will only take off one excess for each claim, unless there is an endorsement shown in your policy schedule to say otherwise.

If we have asked a supplier to deal with all or part of your claim, we may ask them to collect the excess from you.

Our guarantee

We guarantee any work carried out by our suppliers for 12 months. We don’t provide any guarantee for work carried out by a supplier chosen and instructed by you.

Reducing your sum insured

We will not reduce the sum insured after paying a claim.

What we don’t pay for

x We won’t pay:

• to alter or restore any undamaged part of the buildings
• to replace or alter any undamaged items solely because they are part of a set, suite, group or collection, unless they are part of a bathroom suite or fitted kitchen and the damaged parts can’t be repaired or replaced.

Note that the following conditions do not apply to Section 4 Family Legal Protection:
  • The general conditions under ‘Policy terms and conditions’ and ‘Preventing loss’.
  • The claims conditions listed on page 50.

Following the policy terms

You must follow all of the terms and conditions of this policy, and take all reasonable precautions to prevent a claim from happening. Where a claim is unavoidable, you must take all reasonable precautions to minimise the amount of the claim.

If our position is affected because you have not followed the terms and conditions of this policy, we have the right to:
  • refuse or withdraw from any claim
  • refuse to pay costs we have already agreed to meet
  • claim back from you costs that we have paid.

Reporting your claim

You must report full and factual details of your claim to us within a reasonable time of the date of incident.

You must send us any reasonable and relevant information that we ask for. You must pay for any charges involved in doing this.
Choosing who represents you
If we accept your claim, we will choose a preferred law firm to try to settle the matter without having to go to court.
If it is necessary to take your claim to court, or if there is a conflict of interests, you can choose a law firm to act as the appointed representative.
If you choose an appointed representative who isn’t a preferred law firm they must agree to act for you in line with our terms of appointment (you can ask us for a copy). We will only cover their costs from the date they agree to our terms of appointment.
The appointed representative will enter into a separate contract of appointment directly with you. You will be responsible for any of their costs that aren’t authorised by us.

Co-operating with the appointed representative and us
If we ask, you must tell the appointed representative to give us any terms of appointment, information or advice that they have or know about.
You must fully co-operate with the appointed representative and with us.
You must not take any action that has not been agreed by your appointed representative or by us.
You must keep us and your appointed representative promptly informed of all developments relating to the claim and provide us and the appointed representative immediately with all information, evidence and documents that you have or know about.

Offers to settle your claim
You must tell us if anyone makes a payment into court or offers to settle your claim.
We can refuse to pay further costs if you do not accept a payment into court, or an offer to settle a claim, which we or your appointed representative considers should be accepted.

Approval to settle or end your claim
You must not stop, settle, negotiate or withdraw from a claim or withdraw instructions from the appointed representative without our approval. We won’t withhold approval without good reason.

If the appointed representative refuses to continue acting for you, or if you dismiss them
If an appointed representative refuses to continue acting for you with good reason, or if you dismiss them without good reason, cover for your claim will end immediately unless we agree to appoint another appointed representative.
Economically settling your claim
We can decide to settle your claim by paying you the compensation you are likely to be awarded by a court instead of starting or continuing your claim or legal proceedings. If your claim is not for damages, we may decide to settle your claim by paying you the equivalent financial value of your claim.

If costs become disproportionate
We can refuse to pay further costs if we or the appointed representative consider that those costs would be disproportionate to the value of the claim.

If your claim no longer has reasonable prospects of success
You must tell us if your claim no longer has reasonable prospects of success.
We can refuse to pay further costs if your claim no longer has reasonable prospects of success.

Assessing costs
We have the right to have costs:

• we refused to pay further costs and you paid more costs to end your claim.
• you chose to pay the difference between the costs we offered to the appointed representative under our terms of appointment and the costs charged by the appointed representative.
Recovered costs will be split in the same ratio as the costs originally paid: so if you paid 60% of the original costs, you will receive 60% of the recovered costs.

Help when it’s not an emergency

If something happens that’s not an emergency under this policy we can arrange for an authorised repairer to call at your home.

You will have to pay any costs and the contract will be between you and the repairer.

We don’t class this as a call out.
Section 6 Travel

Key things we don’t cover

Just like most insurers we don’t cover everything. The main things we don’t cover are:

✘✘ serious medical conditions
✘✘ anyone aged 65 or over
✘✘ trips that last more than 42 days.

See also the lists of exclusions within each section of this policy under the heading ‘You’re not covered for’.

Independent travel

This policy provides cover for the policyholder and the domestic partner of the policyholder living at the same home to travel independently of each other.

It also covers any dependent child but only while they are travelling with one of the above people or on a trip organised by schools or recognised organisations that are supervised by adults.

Cancellation cover

Your insurance covers you in case you have to cancel your trip before it starts. This cover begins on the start date shown on your schedule or the date you booked the trip, whichever is later, and ends when you leave your home area at the start of your trip (or your home for a trip solely within the UK) – see Section D.

Medical checklist

Please read this section carefully.

No cover is provided for any existing serious medical condition for any insured person which was known about on the start date of your policy or when you booked your trip (whichever is later).

If a new serious medical condition for any insured period becomes known about after you booked your trip, and if your doctor has not advised you to cancel your trip then you can travel as normal on any trip already booked, but no cover would be available for any future trip that you haven’t yet booked. Alternatively if you do not wish to travel on your booked trip, or your doctor advises against travel, you can claim to cancel your trip – see section 6D Cancelling a trip before it starts.

There are also exclusions relating to the ill-health of a close relative, close business associate or any travelling companion, see page 49 for details.

At any time, you’re not covered

✘✘ if you travel against the advice of a doctor, or would have been if you had sought such advice
✘✘ where you are travelling in order to receive medical advice or treatment, or
✘✘ if you have failed to take necessary medication, such as inoculations or medication that a doctor has prescribed to you.

For complaints about Section 4 – Family Legal Protection

If your complaint relates to Section 4 – Family Legal Protection, you can refer your complaint to arbitration instead. This is where an independent person, known as an arbitrator, makes a decision on how to settle the dispute.

The arbitrator will be a solicitor or barrister or other suitably qualified person that you and we agree on. If you and we can’t agree, we will ask the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators to decide.

The arbitrator’s decision will be final and whoever does not win will have to pay all costs and expenses of the arbitration.

European Online Dispute Resolution Platform

If you, an individual, purchased your policy online mainly for your own private use there is now an Online Dispute Resolution (ODR) platform created by the EU Commission, which can help with resolving disputes. You can enter any complaint, other than for trade, about your policy onto the ODR. This will forward your complaint to the correct Alternative Dispute Resolution scheme. For insurance complaints in the UK this is the Financial Ombudsman Service. Their contact details are above, if you prefer to contact them directly. For more information about ODR please visit http://ec.europa.eu/odr.
